Director's Note

Welcome to RWCCT's production of Newsies!

Newsies originally was a movie that came out in 1992. The movie itself bombed at the Box Office, but developed a cult following that was big enough for Disney to turn it into a full-scale musical many years later. Opening on Broadway in 2012, the show ran for 1000 performances and received 2 Tony Awards.

What is it about this story that still captivates audiences today? It's a story of David vs. Goliath. The Newsies were exploited by a war of the publishers, like Pulitzer, who were trying to make money at their expense. No one took them seriously because of their age and their station in life. It is only after they banded together, that they were able to make a difference. The message of this show is what community theatre is all about. It is only after we, as a community of ALL ages come together, that we can create something special.

In the show, there is a line that says, "Give those kids and me the brand new century and watch what happens!" If the youth in this cast are any indication of "the brand new century," then we are in good shape.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the amazing artists that make up our production team. Marcia, Jae, Nelson, Mandi, Steve, Terry, Beth, Mary, Gene, Mike, Nate, Bob, and Joey— you truly help us to "seize the day" with everything that you do. Thank you for helping to support my vision and for challenging me (and everyone else) to be our best. As always, I am humbled by your gifts. To the RWCCT Board, thank you for this opportunity and allowing me to get to do what I love. To our amazing cast, you inspire us with the pieces of yourselves that you leave on the stage each and every rehearsal/performance. Thank you for sharing your talent with us, and for doing it with such grace and humility.

Lastly, during this production, our technical director/lighting designer and friend, Dwayne Reed, became gravely ill. In the true spirit of what this show is all about, we were blessed to have many people step in to support us in Dwayne's absence. Our cast and crew would like to dedicate this performance to Dwayne and his family!

THE RONALD TERPENING SERVICE AWARD 2019

Since the inception of Roberts Wesleyan College Community Theatre, Ronald Terpening was involved in supporting each musical. Ron was our rehearsal accompanist and attended every rehearsal for each show we produced until his retirement. Ron also played both piano and trombone in the Orchestra. He graciously provided encouragement to all, was always willing to serve and had the ability to play any music placed before him. Ron demonstrated a calming patience that lent stability to each production. Ron passed away in 2013 after a short illness and is missed by everyone affiliated with RWCCT. The Board created this award to remember the man and his mission and to honor an individual each year who embodies these same qualities.

The Roberts Wesleyan College Community Theatre Board is thrilled to recognize Mark Christopher as the 2020 recipient of the Ronald Terpening Service Award.
